“Participant category” column in progress report – Improvement

What is this Participant category” in progress report?

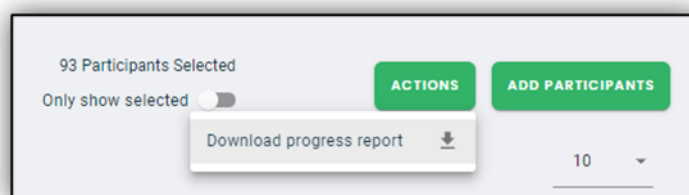

We are adding a new column called ‘Participant category’ in the progress report.

Why did we build this “Participant category” in progress report?

To help our clients effectively manage participants and ensure the correct categories are assigned to them.

How does this “Participant category” in progress report work?

After selecting users in the ‘People’ tab, click on the ‘ACTIONS’ button. You will get an option to request the progress report with the participants.

Once opened you can see a new column ‘Participant Categories’ which will indicate which participant category is assigned to these individuals.

Localisation improvements

What are these Localisation improvements?

To optimise the experience for our customers, we have introduced a set of improvements focused on localisations:

1. Option to select a language for the “SHL Individual challenges” report.

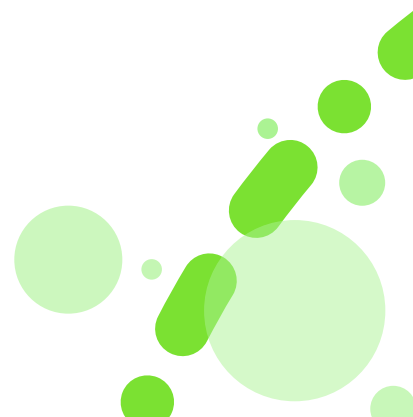

When you click on the download button for ‘SHL Individual challenges’ report, a dropdown appears to select the language. You can select the language in which the report will be downloaded, irrespective of the system language selected.

2. For Japanese language, font has been updated to official, Sawarabi Mincho font, on Insights’ ‘SHL Individual challenges’ report.
3. Japanese characters can be used to name groups.
4. Participants and administrators using Japanese language, have their initials updated to reflect the correct order, in the profile window.

What is the customer impact of Localisation improvements?

These improvements will be automatically available to all the new and existing customers after the release.
